ART

Rotating Art Displays
See original paintings by local artists Erica Harney, Dianne Zinn, Betsy Stutzman, Sharon Woelfling and Teresa Haag on display in the following patient and family waiting areas: Nuclear Medicine wait area in Radiology, gowned waiting areas in Radiology, HVI patient area and family waiting area, and 6th floor Family ICU Waiting Area.

Note: October 22 from 10 am to 1 pm, Teresa Haag will bring her easel and paint on site in the surgical wait area for our pleasant distraction and entertainment.

Save the Date! Work by the artists listed above will be featured at our Artist Reception and Sale on November 8, 3-7pm in T2500. Please join us for celebration of the artists and consider buying a piece as a holiday gift or for your own enjoyment.

Clinical Make-overs
Check out Betsy’s artistic make-overs in clinical areas. Betsy coordinates with local staff to artistically re-create patient waiting areas in need. Her most recent creations are the Nuclear Medicine waiting area, Same Day Unit wait area, South OR wait area, and the 7th floor NICU pump room. Visit Betsy in action at her current project at the Fishburn Family Health.

PERFORMING ARTS

Center Stage has teamed up with the Cobalt Dance company and our Department of Neurology’s Parkinson’s Research for a Better Tomorrow Gift Fund to offer an 8-week program of joyful movement classes for Parkinson’s Disease patients, based on Dance for Parkinson’s http://danceforparkinsons.org. Partners may attend for free. This class is held Fridays 1:30–2:30 at our own University Fitness Center. Center Stage’s Brad Barrows piano and Seasons harp and dulcimer provide lovely live accompaniment. More information: Claire de Boer, 531-8778 or Shari Vegso-Wilson 676-9039.
